

SILVER IN VIRGINIA.

STRENGTH OF THE FREE-COINAGE SENTIMENT GREAT.

FLOOD, HAY, ROSSER, AND MARTIN.

Their Views Agree as to the Fine Outlook for Democracy in the Old Dominion—Personal and Postal Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 7.—(Special.)—Hon. H. D. Flood, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Tenth District, to succeed Mr. Tucker; Thomas L. Rosser, Jr., of Charlottesville, and Hon. James Hay, of Madison, who may be nominated for Congress in the Seventh District, arrived here to-day, and are stopping at the Metropolitan.

SENATOR MARTIN'S VIEW.

Senator Thomas S. Martin arrived here later, and in the afternoon chaperoned the prospective young congressmen—Flood and Hay—around the city, putting them in rapport with the department officials, with whom they will probably come in contact during the next Congress.

The Senator, like Mr. Flood, is enthusiastic over the outlook in Virginia, and regards the election of Bryan and Sewall by an immense majority, and an almost solid congressional delegation from Virginia as almost certain.

The delegation visited the headquarters of the Democratic Congressional Committee, where they had a lengthened interview with Chairman Faulkner. Mr. Hay said the silver sentiment in his district and in every portion of the State he had visited was increasing every day. The Seventh District, he gave an overwhelming majority for Bryan and Sewall, and it was Mr. Hay's opinion that the State would send a solid Democratic delegation to the next Congress.

Messrs. Flood and Rosser were given an interesting tour of the State by Mr. Hay in his prediction as to the result of the next election.

In conformity with an order issued by the Secretary of War, the following officers were relieved from the Artillery School, at Fort Monroe, and will join their proper batteries: Lieutenants Sidney T. Jordan, Delamere S. Kerritt, Edward F. McClachlin, First Lieutenant William E. Barry, and Second Lieutenant William F. Light. They were relieved from the Artillery School, at Fort Monroe, and will join their proper batteries (the Fourth Artillery, K), at the Artillery School, September 1, 1896.

The officers of the new detachment, who were relieved from the Artillery School, at Fort Monroe, and will join their proper batteries in due time. C. Worthington, of Richmond, is at the Raleigh.

THE REPUBLICAN ROW.

The Post of to-day says: "It looks as if the Virginia Republicans will be too busy fighting among themselves to inflict much injury on the Democrats." There is some truth in this remark. The Republican row, which began yesterday, ended in a fight, which indicates that there will be a lively family quarrel in the party throughout the State.

Mr. Arthur B. Fendley and family, of this city, are at the Howard House, where they will spend the months of August and September.

The Virginia Republicans of the District of Columbia, ratified the nomination of McKinley and Bryan at a meeting held last night at Cutler Park. The enthusiasm was not at all hysterical.

Mr. N. C. Watts, of Staunton, Va.; Thomas L. Kerby, of Front Royal, Va.; and E. H. and J. T. Hays, of Snowden, Va., are at the Howard House.

Among recent visitors here have been Mr. Samuel Cohen, wife, and son, Mr. D. Whitlock and wife, Mr. H. J. Myers and wife, Mr. C. D. Dimes, and Mr. William M. Hill, of Richmond. They stopped at the St. James, and were on their way to northern watering-places.

Mr. N. H. Henson, of Richmond; Byron H. Housh, of Bedford; Academy, D. E. Bowman, wife, and son, and W. P. Stubbs, of Richmond, are registered at the National.
